RELIGIOUS FESTIVAL:

Dandiya also known as 'Dandiya Raas' is a most popular folk dance of Gujarat, India. Dandiya is performed throughout India during Navratri festival. This festival is celebrated to honor of Goddess Durga, the dance form represents a battle between the demon Mahishasura and the Goddess. Dandiya is usually done in a group, by both men and women. The special feature of the dance is the colorful attire worn by the dancers and the colorful sticks will be strike. According to the dance setting, two circles are formed by the dancers. One of the circles revolves clockwise, while the other revolves anti clockwise. The dance is a very energetic and fast paced activity, which leaves no scope for lethargy.

The cultural committee had organized 'Dandiya Raas' to celebrate the Navratri festival to signify our culture and to imbibe among the students. This program was celebrated informally and it was inaugurated by Principal and Vice-principal. 'Dandiya Raas' is being performed by five team among them one team was given prize for the best performance.

5. CONCLUSION

As compare to last years, the students are more interested in participating in the cultural events and had won more prizes. The college provides an opportunity for the students to participate in inter- collegiate events by encouraging the students, reimbursement of registration fee and giving attendance for participation. When students represent your college in inter-collegiate events will lead to increase the image of college, the students thinking ability, application skill and confidence level among themselves will increase by exploring and exposing their skill and talents.
