ANNUAL REPORT (2020-2021)

The year 20-21 – year of pandemic have created the impact of Covid-19 is which is not gender-neutral. As the pandemic has spread across the globe it has heightened and amplified existing vulnerabilities and inequalities in social, political, economic and health systems. The economic impact on women and girls is compounded as they are generally earning less, saving less, holding insecure jobs, have less control over their own finances and living close to poverty. We have organized events to empower women and girls even in this pandemic with the following programs
